"Welcome to Italy"

Essential oils and fragrant dried flowers. In this way the perfume will be the first thing you will smell when opening the box. The scent will be a constant throughout the "journey". These flowers and oils can be scattered around the trunk.

In Italy and around the world, the scent of lemon brings to mind many things, such as Sicily, famous for its lemons or the Caprese lemon cake, a specialty of the island of Capri in Campania.

In fact, the essential lemon oil will be included in the box.

As for the flowers, we had thought of putting flowers typical of the Italian flora, such as marigold, honeysuckle, primroses and violets.

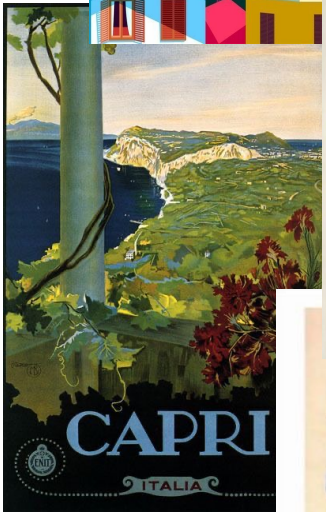

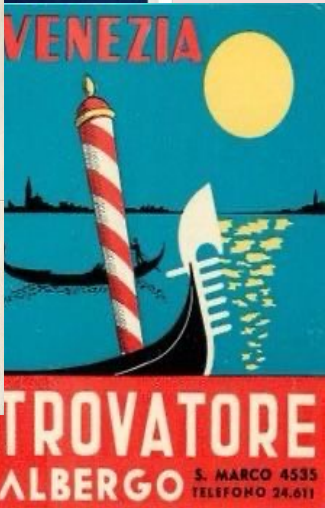

1st Level

To give some images we thought of using a toy camera, often sold in Italy as a souvenir. By placing your eye close to the machine and pressing a button, you can slide slides. The slides are panoramic images of Italy.

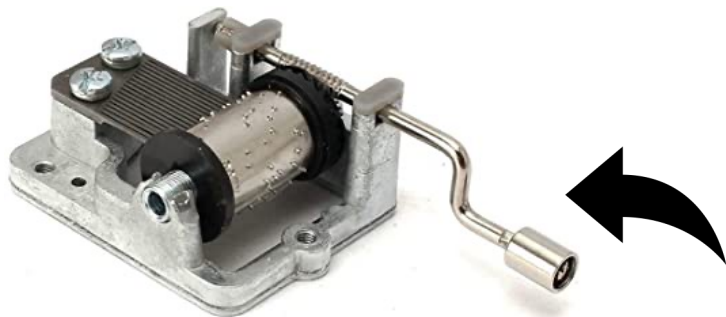

In Italy we have a long tradition of postcards. We leave you as an attached vintage postcard. We'd love to see them in the box. We don't want them to have a precise location.

HOW TO PLAY

Just rotate the handle and it will play the melody,
Both the kids and adult can easily operate,
It would be a fantastic gift for kids/your family/friends.

Internal mechanism

1st Level

In the Italian tradition, music is very important and characteristic. We thought of inserting it through a music box with crank. This small carillon is made of wood and through a reel and strips it plays the music when the crank is turned. A famous song in Italy is Volare by Domenico Modugno.

2nd Level

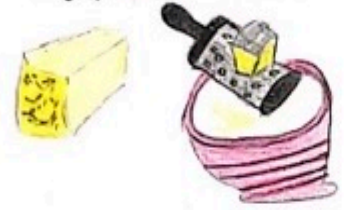

Then the time will come to involve the taste. We thought of something that could involve the whole family. In Italy, cooking and culinary traditions are very important. We offer you to experiment with two recipes. Cacio e pepe, a famous pasta in Rome and Spritz, a cocktail born in northern Italy but famous throughout the peninsula.

Recipe: Cacio e Pepe

INGREDIENTS (for two)

- 200g. of spaghetti
- 140g. of pecorino romano cheese and 60g. of Parmigiano cheese
- 1 teaspoon and 1/2 of black peppercorns.

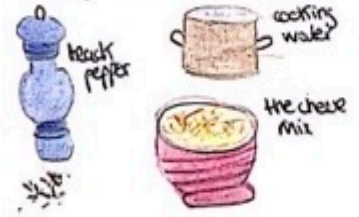

1 Mix 140g. of pecorino romano with 60g. of Parmigiano cheese

2 Cook 200g. of spaghetti in plenty salted water, mix and arrange them in two soup plates.

3 Mix it with the cheese, black pepper and the cooking water until it forms a cream.

4 And finally we would have the Spaghetti Cacio e Pepe

SPRITZ

INGREDIENTS (for one):

- 90 ml of cava brut or prosecco brut.
- 60 ml of Aperol
- 30 ml soda water
- orange
- Ice

1 Fill the glass halfway with ice.

2 Add the measures of cava brut or prosecco brut, Aperol and soda water.

3 Mix with a teaspoon and serve with a slice of orange.

3rd Level

Here will be the book of the Adventures of Pinocchio by Carlo Collodi Russian edition, famous in Italy. There will also be a bookmark depicting Botticelli's Venus.

3rd Level

We would like to let you immerse yourself in this journey also through traditional games, such as Neapolitan cards, to play broom and more ancient games such as Strummolo.
