

Let's kick things off...

Hi guys! I'm Monica Corrente, I'm 24-year-old and I have a bachelor's degree in Communication Studies. I'm currently a second-year master's degree student of Public and Business Communication in Naples.

To introduce myself, I decided to show you a few photos that can express part of my personality.

First of all, my favorite color since I was three-years old is red, particularly a specific shade called "Dark Ruby."

Another thing about me (that might shock you) is that I hate summer! (donthatemepls).

I love the sea but simultaneously I hate the sand, the heat, the sunbathing... If I had to identify myself in a season, it would definitely be autumn. The cold, the clouds, the smell of rain, the leaves on the ground... It's a totally different mood.

In this other photo, I'm in Amsterdam and I'm the one hugging the girl (my cousin).

It may seem like a taken for granted gesture but, trust me, if it comes from me it really isn't. I love to show my affection when it's needed and when I truly feel it.

Sooo... this is a hidden message to all my friends: one day it might happen to you too. Who knows??

Thanks to this photo, you might have guessed something else about me. The thing I love most is traveling.

So far, I haven't traveled much but those few trips I've made have been enough for me to realize that I feel completely at peace, calm and carefree only when I'm in another country.

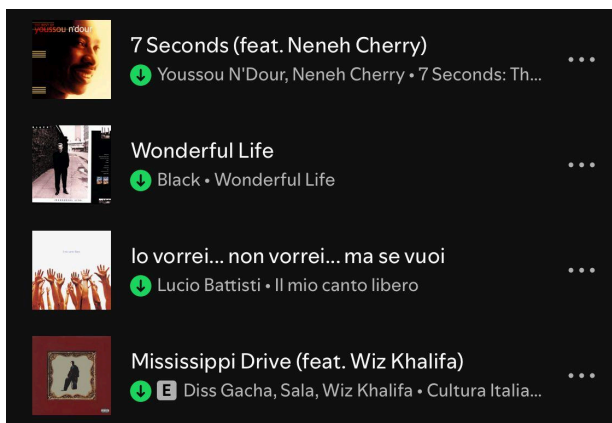

But let's keep going!

Let me introduce you to my dog! This is Jhonny, a 14-year-old English beagle who is my reason for living. I chose this name because in 2010 I was really into a cartoon called “Johnny Bravo” (I don’t know if you know it but I hope so).

Beside my dog, another big companion in my life is music.
I listen to/have listened to all kinds of music genres (yes, even hardcore).
In this picture I show you an example of my Spotify playlist and I swear that it’s completely random!

I go from Lucio Battisti to Youssou N’Dour, from CAS to Future etc... The only music genre I really can't listen to is classical music. It might seem strange (it definitely is), but classical music really drives me crazy!
