

HELLO EVERYONE!

My name is Alessia, and I'm 24 years old. I live in a small town on the Amalfi Coast. I'm in my second year of a Master's in Public and Corporate Communication. Now, let's dive deeper into who I really am!

I've been passionate about animals since I was little. In fact, these are my two dogs, who have been keeping me company for over 10 years. I also have two turtles, three parrots, and a hamster!

I love spending evenings, especially the winter ones, surrounded by the warmth of my friends and boyfriends in front of an fireplace. We usually spend most of the winter together playing board games and sharing stories while eating and drinking.

Living on the Amalfi Coast, I've always been close to the sea, which is my favorite place where I truly feel myself. However, as much as I absolutely love the sea, I actually can't stand summer! Mainly because I work during the summer. My favorite season, in fact, is winter!

Finally, one of my biggest passions is books. I've always been surrounded by them since I was little, and over the years, I've built my own little library. I especially love thriller and mystery novels.

Hope this project will help me to discover some new culture and friends!
