

Where I'm from

I am from Pamplona, a small city in the north of Spain. I've lived there my whole life, before moving to San Sebastian to study the university degree more than 3 years ago

ABOUT ME

Things i love

I love music

I love trying new food

I love playing boardgames

I love good conversations

What i want to learn

Ballroom dance

Improve singing

New language

Connecting with different people

Finding a job that improves society and people's lives, allows me to live happily, and lets me continue learning.

Post-college aspirations

I really enjoyed designing the incorporation of a screen to a vacuum sealer. It involved doing so in a creative way, but taking much into account the manufacturing process of this product

A University project I enjoyed
